Judicial Philosophy/ Why Running	"I'm a judge, I've been a local and state prosecutor, I directed the state's Office of Crime Victim Services. No one knows better than me how important it is to have a legal system that works….I believe in our history of great public schools, protecting our beautiful natural resources, and protecting civil rights for all."[1]	"There is no end to the mischief the judiciary causes when it abandons its role of declaring what the law is, and instead arrogates to itself the power to develop new law in place of what it received from the ultimate lawgivers – the people of the State of Wisconsin and the United States...It is my desire to serve the people of this State by applying, protecting, and preserving the rule of law in the Wisconsin Supreme Court."[7]
