

No Pain, No Gain

Accomplishment comes at a cost

Jesus is pointing to His worth Luke 14:25-33

Do you assign a value to Jesus, or do you count all things as loss in your pursuit of Him?

The importance of the host dictates our availability Luke 14:16-24

Jesus goes and invites the lowly

They are not going to miss the grace given to them
because of their pride

List some ways you might unintentionally assign value to Jesus?

Is growth and relationship with Jesus so valuable to you that you welcome the pain that might be required to have it? Romans 8:18

We must frequently speak of God's worth to our own souls and to one another.
Hebrews 10:24-25