Christian sympathies for Char Cook and family on the loss of her mother, Dorothy Lovett, who went home to Glory on June 16.

Prayer request from Faye Obgartel: There is a referendum before the assembly general of Mali that says the President can be elected for 10 years at a time instead of 5 years and that he can be reelected indefinitely. This is a very dangerous referendum and they are calling it a coup d'état against the constitution. People are not pleased and most are against it but the public doesn't have a lot of say in the matter--it depends on the general Assembly. Pray for the country and for this vote.

Continue to pray for Gary Matthews and Jim Orth as they work in Australia until June 26.
