

Communion's Past, Present, and Future

Communion is...

An instruction in which we obey Christ

Looking at the past, Communion is...

A commemoration in which we remember Christ

A proclamation in which we preach Christ

We should do this broadly and yet personally.

Looking at the present, Communion is...

A participation in which we feed on Christ

We should do this personally, yet corporately.

Looking at the future, Communion is...

An anticipation in which we wait for Christ

We should do this personally, corporately and ultimately in perfect unity!